

29TH AND E

Description

This ground-up construction project consists of three five-story residential buildings totaling 46 rental dwelling units. Designed with a modern coastal aesthetic, the development features tuck-under garages, open-concept living spaces, and contemporary exterior finishes that reflect the character of San Diego's urban lifestyle.

Location

San Diego, CA

Construction Type

Ground up five story three building construction build out

